4th grade writing · More practice and a guide for parents at tutorsaurus.com/learn/4th-grade/pronouns

1. who
   Use who for a person. The man who fixed the sink.
2. mine
   Mine stands alone at the end. My would need a noun after it.
3. his
   His shows the lunch belongs to Kenji.
4. their
   Their shows the projects belong to the students.
5. that
   Use that for things like cookies.
6. when
   When connects the day to the time we met. It is a relative adverb for times.
7. where
   Where connects the park to the place we play. It is a relative adverb for places.
8. who
   Use who for people like the scientist.
9. whom
   Use whom after a word like to or for. To whom should I give it?
10. which
    Use which, not that, when the extra information is set off by commas.
